What are gratuities for? Why do I have to pay them? Are they optional?

Gratuities are a way to show appreciation for the efforts of your tour guides, bus drivers, and hotel porters who work hard to ensure you have a smooth and enjoyable trip. The suggested tipping amount is shared among all the service providers involved during your tour.

While tipping is not mandatory, it is highly recommended that you prepay the gratuities before departure for your convenience and to simplify the process. Prepaying ensures that you don't have to carry extra cash or calculate tips for multiple guides and staff daily, especially on days with multiple service providers.

Are optional tours mandatory? Can I decline some or all of the excursions?

Optional tours are not mandatory, and you are free to decline some or all of them. Most optional tours take place in the evening, offering travelers a chance to explore the city at night. If you prefer to rest, you can relax at the hotel instead.

A few optional tours are scheduled during the daytime, such as the 30–40 minute Grand Canal boat ride in Suzhou.

If an optional tour doesn't operate due to low participation or any other unexpected issues, TripOppo will notify you and issue a full refund to the original form of payment.
